

Mo Chaudry — Keynote and Motivational Speaker

“Making things happen – that’s something to be excited about, something to put your heart and soul into.”

Mo Chaudry believes that if he puts his mind to something, he will succeed. In every business enterprise there are obstacles - but they are there to be overcome. Mo inspires his audience to feel that they too can make things happen.

Mo Chaudry has a track record for turning negatives into positives and overcoming obstacles. It's the story of his life - from the day he arrived in the UK as a 9 year old boy from Pakistan. He learned the hard way to solve his own problems.

Now, in 25 years in the finance and property world he's never failed in business or to make a profit. One of the top 10 Asian business people in the Midlands, Mo has a reputation for success in business start-ups his track record in business turnaround creating and sustaining employment generating business in the local community.

Mo's belief in himself and his willingness to take risks and to accept a challenge add up to a wealth of experience and a genuine desire to inspire and to motivate others to succeed.

His message? “If I can do it, so can you.”

Tourism — A Route to Regeneration

Audience: Local Authorities, Regeneration and Development bodies, etc.

Tourism creates opportunities for local authorities who have the challenge of regenerating their area or region. Mo Chaudry has a hands on perspective on the role of tourism in regeneration, on creating success in a failed environment

Succeeding in Enterprise

Audience: Business Schools, Enterprise Partnerships, etc.

Mo Chaudry has some pretty good ideas about the ingredients of success in enterprise. He learned the hard way, accepting setbacks as challenges and overcoming obstacles.

Financial Services and Property

Audience: Financial Services, Real Estate, Investment, etc.

“Don’t overstretch yourself, don’t gamble, only speculate when you can afford to lose.” Mo Chaudry’s background in finance gave him the foundation to go into property. Twenty years after starting his financial services business he’s one of biggest property players in North Staffordshire.

